

2014 BLUEGRASS K-9 NARCOTICS TRIALS

Thursday – Monday
October 31 – November 3, 2014
Mt. Sterling, KY

Police K-9 teams from across Kentucky will gather in Mt. Sterling for the 2014 Bluegrass K-9 Narcotics Trials. For four days, the dogs and their handlers will train and compete on their ability to detect drugs and patrol scenarios. Two certifications are available from national organizations, National Association of Professional Canine Handlers (NAPCH) and the National Narcotic Detector Dog Association (NNDDA). Entry Fee for event is $50.00. For registration Information please contact Robin Acciaro at (859)745-3119.

For more information please contact K-9 Handlers:
Deputy Tommy Parker (859)404-7220
Patrol Captain Kim Kipp (606) 875-5042

Sponsored by Montgomery County
Sheriff's Department and the US Forest Service.

