

Kentucky Center for School Safety

At the Annual Safe Schools Advocacy Council Conference held in Las Vegas, Nevada during the week of July 22nd, two Kentucky school resource officers (SRO's) and a Police Department in Kentucky took (3) the 15 exemplary service in school safety awards given out for school safety initiatives. These prestigious commendations were awarded to:

1. Billy King, Nicholasville Police Department (nominated by the Kentucky Association of School Resource Officers)
2. Joe Saunier, Lawrenceburg Police Department (nominated by the Kentucky Association of School Resource Officers)
3. Owensboro Police Department (nominated by the local school district)

Above: Nicholasville SRO Billy King receives the award for exemplary service in school safety initiatives.