Howard Welcomed as Leadership Development Section Supervisor

RICHMOND, Ky. – Steven Howard was named supervisor of the Leadership Development Section at the Department of Criminal Justice training, effective Aug. 1. Howard has completed more than 1,000 hours of leadership, supervision and management development training. He has served as an instructor in the DOCJT leadership section since March 2013 and was an instructor in DOCJT's Patrol and Traffic Section for two years prior.

Howard is a 21-year veteran of the Morehead Police Department, where he rose through the ranks before retiring as assistant chief in 2009. Howard also served as a military police officer in the U.S. Marine Corps Reserves before joining the Morehead Police. He earned a bachelor's degree from Morehead State University and is working toward his master's degree in Leadership Administration.

Howard replaces Rich Hanzes, who retired July 31.
