

Bardstown Police chief is KY " Top Cop" of the Year

Hebron, KY- The Kentucky Association of Chief's of Police (KACP) named Bardstown Police Chief Rick McCubbin the 2015 Chief Of The Year for Kentucky. Citing numerous accomplishments at BPD since being named chief in 2011, coming in as an outside chief is a challenge but that has not stopped Chief McCubbin from turning things around in his short tenure.

Citing his 27 years of service, he was recognized for not only the internal accomplishments at BPD but also his dedication to the profession as a leader, to his department, and to the community of Bardstown.

Chief McCubbin started his career at the Louisville Police Department where he served until 2002 when he was appointed by President George W. Bush as the United States Marshal for the Western District of Kentucky. He served as marshal until 2010, and was appointed as chief at Bardstown in 2011.

McCubbin is a graduate of the University of Louisville with a Bachelor of science in Administration and a Masters degree in criminal justice. He is also a graduate of the 108th AOC at the Southern Police Institute (SPI) in Louisville.

Chief McCubbin is also an adjunct faculty member at Elizabethtown Community College and teaches in the criminal justice department.

Congratulations Bardstown and Chief McCubbin!!!
