

DOCJT Competition Shoot

The 19th annual Department of Criminal Justice Training's Competition Shoot has been re-scheduled for September 25, 2010. Competitions include individual, team, combat and retired.

Top scorers in each competition receive an award, while second and third place finishers receive a DOCJT challenge coin. The registration fee is $30.00 per individual, which includes one attempt at the combat course. Each additional combat course attempt is $5. Proceeds from the shoot will be donated to a charity chosen by the winning team.

The competition begins at the DOCJT Boonesborough Range at 9 a.m.

Registration forms can be requested through Rob Ramsey at (859) 622-5946 or at Robert.Ramsey@ky.gov.
