

IDENTITY CRIME TRAINING SEMINAR PROVIDING USEABLE RESOURCES AND TOOLS FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT

Tuesday – May 18, 2010

Hosted by Kentucky State Police

Identity theft victimizes millions of Americans every year. Crossing jurisdictional boundaries and frequently difficult to prove, identity theft is one of the biggest challenges facing law enforcement. It is important in the fight against this crime to have all available resources at your command to protect your community and respond to victims. In this free seminar, law enforcement will learn about various federal resources that can assist them in expediting investigations and how to use those resources.

Location: Kentucky Transportation Cabinet
Cabinet Auditorium
200 Mero Street
Frankfort, Kentucky 40601

Time: Tuesday, May 18, 2010
0800 – 0830: Arrival
0830 – 1700: Class Time

Parking: East Parking Garage, on the first level, or the parking lot at the corner of High and Mero Streets.

Please e-mail Amy Dempsey at amy.dempsey@ky.gov to register as seating is limited to 250. The deadline for registration is Monday May 10, 2010.

For questions, please contact Amy Dempsey at (502) 226-7404 or amy.dempsey@ky.gov

