SPEAKERS

Stan Walters

COURSE TITLE:
The Narrative Interview: Efficient & Effective Techniques with Exceptional Results

COURSE DESCRIPTION:
How making some simple changes in interview technique can gain 60% more usable information from every interview.

Stan B. Walters, CSP is known worldwide as "The Lie Guy®." He is President of Truth & Deception, Inc. He works with agencies and organizations that need to train their people how to conduct successful interviews and interrogations that uncover the real story. His clients include law enforcement, corrections, military and government intelligence, and corporate loss prevention worldwide. He has appeared on ABC, NBC, CBS, Fox News and CNN. He has been profiled twice on the National Geographic Channel and was technical advisor and host for the National Geographic special "Science of Interrogation."

John Schwartz

COURSE TITLE:
Interview and Interrogation Techniques

COURSE DESCRIPTION:
Hone your interviewing and interrogating skills. Some of the topics include rapport building, psychological justification and recognizing the different personality types encountered in the interrogation setting.

Mr. Schwartz retired after serving twenty years with the New York City Police Department. Mr. Schwartz was a detective for thirteen of those years and was assigned to various units throughout his career including patrol, plainclothes, robbery, and the precinct detective squad as a general assignment detective. John spent the final eight years of his career assigned to the homicide squads in Brooklyn South and the Bronx.

Mr. Schwartz is currently employed by the Kentucky Department of Criminal Justice Training as a law enforcement instructor. For the past five years Mr. Schwartz has instructed officers throughout the Commonwealth in investigative classes, some of the topics include Criminal Investigation, Interview and Interrogation, Homicide Investigative Techniques and Cold Case Investigation.

Troy Timmons

COURSE TITLE:
The Games Monsters Play: Understanding the behavioral and operational characteristics of child molesters

COURSE DESCRIPTION:
Effective interviewing in sex abuse cases begins with understanding the profile of an offender. Learn facts about who is most likely victimized and who is most likely to abuse. Gain insight into how and why people molest children and what makes a child more or less of a target to the offender.

Troy D.Timmons, M.Ed., L.P.C. is a Licensed Professional Counselor and Licensed Sex Offender Treatment Provider in private practice in Amarillo, Texas. Having interviewed and treated hundreds of victims and child molesters, he provides treatment services and expert testimony in the area of child sexual abuse, and speaks at seminars across the United States.
