

The Department of Criminal Justice Training would like to announce a new course that has been added to the 2010 Training Schedule, the Perishable Skills Practicum (Course #1627-10). This intense forty-hour course is designed for the veteran officer with 5+ years out of basic training. This course will refresh basic competencies while updating the seasoned officer with some current best practices. Topic areas include:

- Handgun training including some advanced tactics and a day handgun qualification
- Emergency vehicle operation including newly released NHTSA pursuit policy considerations.
- Defensive Tactics training including weapon retention and GAGE
- Physical fitness, wellness assessment
- Legal update specific to use of force and pursuit.

The course will be offered in Richmond on the following dates:

- August 9 – 13, 2010

To register for this course please complete a DOCJT Form 29-1 and submit to Registration as usual. Should you have any questions regarding this course you may contact Skills Branch Manager Fran Root at (859) 622-8075.