Kentucky Law Enforcement Memorial Foundation Announces Next Scholarship Application Deadline

RICHMOND, Ky. – The Kentucky Law Enforcement Memorial Foundation is now accepting applications for the 2011 scholarships. Recipients are restricted to law enforcement officers and telecommunication personnel (current, retired or disabled) and their survivors or dependents. The scholarships may be used at any accredited college or university, including two-year and community colleges and may also be used for attendance at recognized or certified vocational or trade schools. Students do not have to major in law enforcement or criminal justice to be eligible for the scholarship.

The award is limited to a maximum of $1,000 per year, except if the award recipient is a family member of an officer who was killed in the line of duty the award amount will be $2,000.

All scholarship applications must be received by March 31, 2011.

Applications can be downloaded at www.klemf.org under the scholarship tab. Applications should be sent to:
