

Two Day Criminal Interdiction Course:

Training Announcement

The Munfordville Police Department will be hosting a two-day Criminal and Drug Interdiction Training Seminar beginning Monday, October 18 and Tuesday, October 19, 2010. The seminar, geared toward the uniform patrol officer and supervisor, will be taught by Mr. Shaun Smart, a nationally recognized authority on criminal interdiction, and will include the following topics:

- Change in Driving Behavior and Unusual Driving Behavior
- Identifying the Criminal
- Introduction to the Crime Problem
- Questioning and Evaluating during a Traffic Stop
- Consent Searches
- Canine Usage
- Vehicle Approaches
- Vehicle Searches
- False and Hidden Compartments
- Racial Profiling Issues and Concerns
- A Practical Approach to Search and Seizure

This seminar is the last one scheduled in Kentucky for 2010. The registration fee for the two-day seminar is $100 per student and a certificate of attendance will be issued. The training will be conducted at the Hart County Public Library, 500 East Union Street, Munfordville, Kentucky 42765. The point of contact for registration forms and class information will be at e-mail ssmart5@earthlink.net. Forms will be returned via e-mail as soon as possible. Telephone inquiries can be made to (937) 456-9643 during regular business hours. Secondary contact point is Officer Dave King at telephone (270) 528-7773 or e-mail dking@scrtc.com.